Federal Direct Sub Loan
Funded by the U.S. Department of Education, the Federal Direct Subsidized Loan (self-help aid) is an award for undergraduate students that requires repayment. This loan is interest free while the student maintains at least half-time enrollment. Interest and repayment begin six months after the student graduates or drops below half-time enrollment. The federal government sets annual and lifetime loan limits. You can find more about the annual and lifetime limits at https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types/loans/subsidized-unsubsidized.

Covering the Balance after Financial Aid and Scholarships

- Parent PLUS loans
  - Apply as early as May (FAFSA required)
- Private student and/or parent loans
  - FASTChoice (search tool on our Private/Alternative Loans page)
- HOW MUCH?
  - Borrow up to Cost of Attendance minus other financial aid and scholarships
- HOW LONG
  - We highly recommend applying for a full year (fall and spring semester) loan. Your costs will be similar from the fall semester to the spring semester.
- WHEN?
  - We highly recommend applying for loans sooner rather than later.
Busting Loan Myths

1. If I borrow a full year loan, I am paying interest on the entire amount from the start of the fall semester.

   FALSE - You will not overpay interest when you borrow all at once for a full academic year because you only pay interest on the amount disbursed.

2. It is better to wait for spring charges and apply for a loan then.

   FALSE - If the student plans on being full-time for both semesters, your bill should be very similar both terms.
Loan pointers

1. When you apply for a loan for the full academic year you will have one credit check and one loan payment.

2. If you opt for more than one loan, you may run the risk of being denied on future applications.

3. When you apply for one loan at the beginning of the academic year, you will have peace of mind knowing that the aid you applied for is in place for the academic year.
General pointers

1. Complete the FAFSA and the scholarship application each year.
   • The FAFSA opens October 1 each year.
   • The scholarship application for the next year will open in late August each year.
   • The priority deadline is January 22 each year.

2. Check your email regularly – both students and parents.

3. Check Hokie SPA regularly.

4. Always have your FERPA passcode when contacting a VT office.

5. Don’t wait until the last minute – loan applications, 529’s, outside scholarships, budget tuition plan, payment.
