You’re in... now what?

You’ve applied, been accepted, and are planning your life at Virginia Tech...

Now what? Your life as a Hokie starts in just a few short weeks, and that can be overwhelming. That’s where “You’re In... Now What?” comes into play. This is your guide to life at Virginia Tech and the tool that will help you plan for life on campus. You’ll find information on just about anything you need to know about the university, from where to eat and how to use your dining plan, to living with a roommate, and the ways you can get involved while you’re at school!

First-Year Orientation takes place July 9 - August 2. There are 15 sessions over this period. Attending a session provides you with the opportunity to meet other incoming Hokies, register for classes, learn about your new Hokie community and receive your Hokie Passport ID card. For questions about orientation please visit – https://nsp.vt.edu/orientation.html or download “Hokies on Track” app to make your own personal student schedule.

Accepting the Award Package and Receiving Aid

The award package is a list of the financial aid we can offer you for a particular aid year. It lists the types and the amounts of financial aid you can expect to receive at Virginia Tech. The aid may consist of federal, state, and private aid from the university and other sources. You will need to accept your aid in your Hokie Spa! For questions about accepting your Financial Aid please visit:

Completing “Thank you” Letters for Scholarships!

General Scholarships will not be applied to the university bill until a formal letter of thanks is received at the Donor Relations Office. Please send one thank you letter for each scholarship awarded to the Virginia Tech Office of Advancement. This office will forward your letter to the scholarship donor. For their address and tips on what to include see the link below.
